Dear Saints,

This weekend as we prayerfully begin a Feast in a new book & chapter, II Chronicles 1-3. We will see how fragile men regardless of position unable to function in a right manner without God. When God asked Solomon tell me what you want and I shall grant it. Solomon asked for wisdom to lead his people "God said to Solomon, "Since this is your heart's desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches or honor, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king, therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, riches and honor, such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have." - II Chronicles 1: 11-12. Stay ready to stand with us faith comes by hearing and hearing from the Word of God, The Feast is an important part of our preparation. ## II Chronicles Overview

“SOLOMON began his reign with a pious, public visit to God's altar. Those that pursue present things most eagerly, are likely to be disappointed; while those that refer themselves to the providence of God, if they have not the most, have the most comfort. Those that make this world their end, come short of the other, and are disappointed in this also; but those that make the other world their end, shall not only obtain that, and full satisfaction in it, but shall have as much of this world as is good for them, in their way. Let us then be contented, without those great things which men generally covet, but which commonly prove fatal snares to the soul.” (Henry’s Concise)
